

Coritha Pierre

EXPERT AND HOST

You think you've tried everything in the world of wine tasting events? Well, think again and discover the Vegas tasting experience with our expert Coritha Pierre!

Coritha is a expert-host who knows how to share with simplicity and expressiveness her love for wines. Her professionalism and interpersonal skills led her to some televisual and radio hosting, then naturally towards entertaining wine event projects.

For more then fifteen years, she has maintained a professional relationship in the commercialization of products department with the SAQ (Liquor board commission in Quebec). Always striving to perfect her knowledge in wines, beers and spirits locally and on a larger scale. Charming and friendly, she is a true wine enthusiast who brings to life the events and workshops of Vins au Féminin.

Whether it is a corporate evening, a charity event or a 5 to 7 cocktail hour with friends, she will guide you through the world of wines and beers in a fun and relaxed way.

For an evening guaranteed to be out of the ordinary, let Coritha make you discover the art of tasting!
