SOMMELIER - HOST

Passion is certainly the word that best describes the charismatic personality of Geneviève Leclerc, who puts all of her soul into each and every project she undertakes.

Well respected performer in the music industry, her impressive talent allowed her to travel the globe. Throughout her 8 years of traveling the world as an artist on cruise ships, Genevieve discovered amazing wineries and a deep love for wines and their secrets.

At the age of 13, Genevieve's career took off when she landed her first role in the french musical comedy Les Enfants de Don Quichotte. Her successful journey continued with other famous musicals such as Les Misérables, Les Belles-Sœurs (directed by René-Richard Cyr). In 2016 she was a candidate on the renown show La Voix (french version of The Voice) which exposed her talent to millions of people. Her mind-blowing performance of the song Je suis malade brought a whole new level of recognition towards Genevieve's talent. After two french albums released (Portfolio & Celle que je suis), both were acclaimed by the critics and fans. And received a nomination at the 2018 ADISQ Award for the best anglophone show of the year. Then she flew to Russia under the invitation of «maestro triplement» Oscaristra by «Michel Legrand» who offer her to interpret on classic mytic film song such as « Les Parapluies de Cherbourg».
